This is the real deal! Log cabin in the pines, has so many attractive features, island kitchen with new laminate flooring, built-ins, gas cooking all open to the great room, the hall bath as an authentic claw foot tub and a basin just like grandma used to have...what a wonderful place to live year around or as a weekend getaway. Here you get the resort feel of the mountains at the 4500 foot elevation. Here you'll get cooler summers and some snow in winter. There is a recreation area available to residents which includes picnic tables, BBQ's, and a large pond for swimming. There is a community water system and the annual dues is presently $600.
